Email:
jessajedib@aol.com kopchak@pwssc.gen.ak.us

Scope of Work:
Outer Rim Publications will research and write six bimonthly magazine articles and six corresponding, condensed, newspaper articles publicizing OSRI’s activities. The magazine articles will be approximately 3000 words, and the newspaper articles from 500-800 words in length. Outer Rim Publications will distribute the articles to magazines with appropriate target audiences. We will choose illustrative photos and graphics from OSRI’s files. It is important for OSRI to reach readers outside the scientific community. OSRI’s projects and progress will affect Alaskans and residents of Arctic regions worldwide. Articles could describe OSRI’s circulation modeling, food web toxicology studies, small oil spill prevention and recovery, and the conclusions originating from OSRI’s conferences and workshops. Outer Rim Publications can translate OSRI’s goals, mission, and the progress of its projects into language easily understood by the general public. The six magazine articles and the six newspaper and newsletter articles will be researched, written, and distributed at a cost not to exceed $8160.00.
