Scope of Work:

The computer network supporting the Oil Spill Recovery Institute and Prince William Sound Science Center's operations is in the process of being upgraded. The intern working for this project will specifically assist in the setup of new servers for the web pages and development of a new system for maintaining the web pages. This new maintenance system will be more user-friendly than the old network system while still maintaining security. The intern for this project will also assist OSRI and Science Center staff in learning to develop web pages and, once the new system is in place, will train staff in its implementation. The project is anticipated to require approximately 25 hours per week for up to 6 weeks.
